

Date: 28 July 2010

Press Release

On the occasion of the Renaissance Day (23rd of July 2010) and to commemorate the (Jewel of Muscat) sailing ship voyage from Muscat (Sultanate of Oman) to Singapore in 2010, the Central Bank of Oman is pleased to issue a Silver Commemorative Coin depicting coloured picture of “Jewel of Muscat” Sailing Ship.

This commemorative coin is a Legal Tender for its face value and may be purchased from Central Bank of Oman. The distinctive features, specifications and indicative selling price of this coin are mentioned in the table below; however the price is subject to change in accordance with the variations in the prices of silver in the International Market.

Distinctive Features

Obverse

Coat of Arms (Khanjar), the name of the country (Sultanate of Oman), the name of Central Bank of Oman, and Denomination in Arabic and English.

Reverse

The coin depicts a coloured picture of the Jewel of Muscat Sailing Ship.

Specifications:

Silver Coin
Denomination:	One Rial
Fineness:	0.999 Silver
Diameter:	38.61 mm
Weight:	28.28 gms
Price (R.O):	